updated note: ^{AT} clear error given on the program: "A reasonable 102(a) could have been made against claims 3 & 6 over Dinsdale et al. The reason for indicating claim 3 & 6 free of prior art viz. motivation or suggestion to a administration of RAD51 w/ a chemotherapeutic agent ^{is incorrect} of the anticancer molecule; only the sensitivity thereto is induced Claims 3 & 6 do not require co-administering a chemothera- peutic agent w/ the RAD51 anticancer molecule; only that sensitivity thereto is induced. Further the induced sensitivity to a chemotherapeutic agent was be an inherent property of the known RAD51." says the reviewer... is agreed	5/20/03	maus
